

The Wisconsin no call list has been a tremendous success and should not be weakened. It is the most popular program ever in this state and provides individuals protection against harrassment from a wide array of telemarketers. Why should I have to put up with unsolicited calls in my own home at all times of the day. Please do not weaken this law.